ORDER AUTHORIZING
PAYMENT OF PREPETITION EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS IN THE ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS

On May 8, 2025, Specialty Cartridge, Inc. d/b/a Atlanta Arms, debtor and debtor in possession in the above-styled chapter 11 case (“Debtor”), filed its Emergency Motion for Order Authorizing Payment of Prepetition Employee Compensation and Benefits in the Ordinary Course of Business (the “Employee Motion”) (Doc. No. 7), seeking authority to pay or otherwise honor various employee-related prepetition obligations of Debtor, to or for the benefit of, currently active employees.

Debtor's counsel has certified that a copy of the notice of the hearing of the Employee Motion has been served either through the ECF filing systems or electronic mail on all parties with a potential interest in cash collateral, the twenty largest unsecured creditors, and the U.S. Trustee (Doc. Nos. 9, 10, and 11). The Court finds that notice of the Employee Motion, as it relates to this Order, is sufficient for all purposes under the Bankruptcy Code.

Hearing on the Motion was held May 9, 2025 (the "Hearing"). Counsel for Debtor, G. Frank Nason, IV, appeared at the Hearing and represented to the Court that he was not aware of any party that opposed the entry of this Order. No party appeared to oppose the relief sought. Notice of the Employee Motion and the hearing appears to have been appropriate in these particular circumstances and is sufficient for all purposes under the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the relief requested. Based upon the record in the case and the representations of Debtor's counsel, and after due consideration and sufficient cause appearing therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED that the relief requested in the Employee Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein; and it is further

ORDERED that, subject to the condition below, Debtor is authorized to fund the salaried employees and hourly employees payroll due May 14, 2025; and it is further

ORDERED that Debtor is authorized to make all normal and customary withholdings and deductions from wages and other compensation paid, to timely and promptly make all matching payments or contributions required under applicable law with respect to all amounts authorized herein for the purpose of paying all applicable taxes and other obligations normally associated with those payrolls, and to timely and promptly remit payment of taxes and other obligations on each and every payroll; and it is further ORDERED that Debtor is authorized to pay the premiums for the Policy (as defined in the Employee Motion) due for the month of May, 2025.
